LET'S GO SHOPPING
Enjoy Donostia while losing yourself in our shops.

They say that we donostiarras have a special style that's reflected in our streets, the way we dress, the things we create. The best way to see—and taste—all three for yourself is to go shopping in the city and discover a shop that has managed to maintain its essence and flavor over the decades, existing side-by-side with trendy hotspots and luxury brand stores.

MADE IN SS

DONOSTIA / SAN SEBASTIÁN
2019 SHOPPING GUIDE
Sisters Helena and Ana created this company specialising in quality jewellery, headwear and accessories with a chic twist. They design exclusive collections, with surprising vintage pieces. They also have a beauty line using some of the best ranges in Europe, such as Handmade Beauty.

BOX San Sebastián is a unique company with a six-decade history in premium products. They welcome the most discerning of customers and those seeking non-mass-produced items which can only be found in San Sebastián. 8010Y6 is their signature piece.

The Casa Munoa jewellers have been working as goldsmiths since 1935. They design, produce and sell their own exquisite signature jewellery pieces. They also offer a wide variety of vintage and antique jewellery items and objects of decoration. Their combination of experience, tradition, design and modernity results in premium-quality pieces.
Goiuri is a swimwear store which designs and produces its own signature bathing suits and bikinis. It has exclusive rights to Australian swimwear brands such as Seafolly and was the first business to sell the brand in this area of Europe.

Irulea means ‘spinner’ or ‘weaver’ in Basque, and this store offers hand-made articles for babies plus lingerie items and home accessories. The company’s independent production and artisan methods are what truly set them apart. They currently supply children’s clothing to the British Royal Family.

Creativity and innovation define the Isabel Zapardiez story, with bridal design being the brand’s signature activity. The creations are considered to be couture pieces due to the high quality of their fabrics, the exclusive nature of their designs and the detailed production process which takes place in the San Sebastián workshop.
Manuela va de fiesta is a clothing label which specialises in fashion for brides, godmothers and special guests. The brand creates its own signature, tailor-made collections. 100% “Made in Spain”, where tradition and the avant-garde are blended with high-quality fabrics. Dresses created using artisan techniques and an haute couture atelier line.

Contxu Uzkudun is the creator of this Donostian brand. Her designs are inspired by the landscape, culture and traditions of Donostia. The result is contemporary, practical and comfortable items which are naturally flattering to women.

TORRUBIA & TORRUBIA is the only internationally awarded San Sebastian brand. It creates sustainable, contemporary designs in its store workshop in San Sebastian. The spectacular store displays the brand’s entire jewelry line, which includes a wide range of options for men.
A fresh company which prioritises listening to the women that the items are designed for. Now a large international brand with 8 flagship stores and a further 125 points of sale, Zergatik appeals to women that are entertaining, subversive and open-minded.
